MRS. GOUGAR REPLIES TO

Bishop Newman And the Reverend Hillis Severely Roasted.

A HARD SLAP AT BAPTIST PREACHER

He Wanted His Salary in Gold and Said the Silver Dollar Was the Devil's Dollar,

Mrs. Gougar of the Opinion That There is Not an Argument Used By the Gold Standard Advocates That Was Not Used By the Advoof the fact that the committee in charge of Mrs. Gougar's meeting had paid rental charges and held a receipt for the same, caused much excitement. Many ladies were in the crowd crushed against the doors, and they were hur-ried to the renr, and preparations made by testing the question by force. Just forted the doors and the crowd, with a cheer, rushed in. It was reported that the police had been sent for, but there was no attempt to oust the audi-

Before beginning her address, Mrs. Gongar requested the assemblage to sing "America," which was done with a will. She then referred to the sucredness of the day, and said it was time the people objected to confining politics to the saloon, and the devil, and

Mr. Gougar drew a picture of an imaginary alown, where no money was used, but in its stead black and white horses, and drew a parallel between the demonetization of silver and the "ve-horse-itation" of the white horses by the owners of the black animals, and the train of evils that followed the sending of these black horses out of the country, and thus compelling the payment of taxes and all other charges in white horses at a valuation arbi-payment of taxes and all other charges in white horses at a valuation arbitrarily fixed by the "black horse trust." Mrs. Gougar carried her parallel even to the issue of bonds, and the attacks of the financiers and preachers upon those who willed to "undehorsentize" the white horses, who were termed enarchists, repudiationists, hobos, etc. The application of the story was readily made by the audience and heartily applicated.

The speaker then turned her attention to Bletop Newman and Rev. Dr. Hillis, who had spoken from their pul-plits in favor of the gold standard, and PAID HER RESPECTS

Wolston, a Philadelphia Bapilst preacher, who recently wrote a letter demanding that the debts of his church and his own salary be paid in gold, in event of the adoption of free silver, which he stigmatized as "the devil's dollar." The clergy, she declared, was, as a rule, the best paid workers in the cities, and are not in a positica to know the wants of the poor laboring classes; they belong to the same class who crucified Chrisi and who supported shavery, claiming it was who supported slavery, claiming it was sanctioned by divine injunction and precept. Not an argument is now used by the gold standard people, she declared, that was not used by the advocates of human slavery. Taking up onared, that was not used by the auyogates of human slavery. He was for some years one of the masters in Rugby school, and held the head mastership of Wellington college from its first opening in 1838 down to 1872. Among many dignitues he attained were honorable chaplain to the queen, 1873, and chaplain in ordinary, 1875-77. In December, 1878, he was nominated to the newly restored biahopric of Truro, and was consecrated in St. Paul's cathedral April 25, 1877. During his occupation of the see, he began the building of a new cathedral at Truro, of which the outward shell has cost over 190,000, much of that sum having been gathered through the energy of the bishop. In December, 1882, Dr. Benson was appointed by the crown, on Mr.
